Having secured Mr. Vilas ments up to pledge to stand with them to return $13,054,000. the bill to conference, which goes far enough to secure his vote against the pending motion, notwithstanding it is the same in effect that he has been defending with such vigor, they feel that that breach is healed and count upon a full Democratic vote with two exceptions, against the motion.

These exceptions are Senators Bill and Irby. Senator Irby has gone away from the city, but before going he left authority with Senator Hill to pair him for the Washburn motion and against sustaining the chair on a decision favorable to Senator Gray's point of order against the motion.

The Republicans also claim that besides securing these two Democratic votes, either on the motion direct or against a decision of the chair, they will have the full support of their own party and also the votes of Senators Allen, Kyle and Peffer, Populists. The only doubtful rote, they claim, is that of Senator Stewart, whose vote. they believe, if given for the motion would cause it to carry.

The Democrats while not admitting all that the Republicans claim, are giving the question of keeping their forces in line the most careful attention. If one-eighth differential should be stricken out the effect would be very demoralizing, and the experi-ment is one which they will go to any juncture.

The movement had the desired effect and adjournment came earlier than usual. Re-publican leaders express the opinion that a vote will be reached to day. They are conducting a very careful campaign. Democrats, while publicly expressing confidence, privately admit that the situation is precarious, and it is very evident from their manner that they will be glad to have the crisis passed.

BENNINGTON ORDERED HOME. The Vessel Returns on Account of Sickness Among the Crew.

Washington, July 27 .- The reason for the rather unexpected order for the return of the Bennington is the erew. The isthmian fever has appeared on board, and suddenly began $2,901,521.67. to spread in an alarming fashion. The surgeon of the ship contracted the disease and it was necessary to employ a local physician to attend the At present nine men are ill, and it was felt to be an unwarranted exposure of the health and lives of the ship's company to keep the vessel longer in such an unhealthy port as La Libertad at this season.

It is positively stated here the movement of the vessel does not in any way affect the status of the refugees aboard the vessel, and that matter will be adjusted hereafter on its merits. Unless a determination is reached by the date of arrival of the Bennington at Sau Francisco the refugees will not be permitted to land.

Dr. Guzman has received his credentials as Salvadorean minister and is a daily caller at the state department, prepared to present and push his application for Ezem's extradition, but he has not been presented to the president in his new capacity, nor has he been recognized. CAMPAIGN BEGINS

Overmyer Opens for the Democrats at Leavenworth.

The Old Story Against Woman they coming to?"

Governor Lewelling held the view only

POPS AT KANSAS CITY.

Governor Lewelling Taks Part in Willard's Ratification.

LEAVENWORLE, Kan., July 27 .-Democrats of Kansas opened their state campaign here tast night. The initial meeting was called to order by J. R. Garrett, chairman of the county central committee, introducing as the chairman of the evening Martin Smith. The latter introduced Hon. David Overmver.

Mr. Overmyer said that it afforded him pleasure to open the campaign in Leavenworth, the old reliable, invincible fortress of Democracy. He thought the time in which we live are too serious in order to be entertaining. or amusing. He was here as a citizen of Kansas to meet his fellow citizens, who are moved by fear, hope and expectation that move him. He was here as a representative of the great political party of the country, that come into being with the constitu-tion, which has stood ever since and will never fall until the constitution falls. Its longevity, he said, is due to the fact that it stands by the constitution. He then briefly referred to present condition of affairs in the nation, placing the responsibility upon the Republican party.

He touched upon the money question, and the state control of enterprises. He wanted to know how many members are sent to the legislature who know anything about laws and society. Lewelling, he said, be-lieved in people buying the railroads, but didn't say how they should get them. Mr. Overmyer thought if he and his state officers would return their passes and pay as he (Overmyer) does there would be more equity, and the railroads would have a better chance to live.

the prohibitory amendment and all the infamous laws on the statute books passed in pursuance thereof. Mr. Overmyer said Kansas first suffered from an invasion of mi-sionary talent, and the people were induced to vote for the amendmen; which was adopted by a curious provision in the constitution. No sooner had this been inserted in the constitution than a series of laws followed and the house. He said if the law was such what they would see. Experience was tions of sheep herders and shearers proven that the executive consults his own desires and constructs the boards so that they would be a supple instrument in his hands. If women demand the ballot it implies we have been unjust to women, and ask if the citizen was prepared to vote himself a monumental scoundrel, because that is what he would be if he has been unjust to woman. He doclared that the present electorate would be unequal suffrage.
